The National Catholic Council on Addictions (NCCA) Welcomes You! Become a supporter - join the NCCA and we will keep in touch and share our resources:

- NCCA offers practical "how to" resources and advice to Catholic parishes and communities planning to establish an outreach ministry for alcohol and drug awareness & support for persons in recovery.
- Offers educational/motivational materials geared to youth audiences to help young people better understand addictions & how to make wise choices in their own lives.
- Free prayer booklet: "Prayers for Addicted Person & Their Loved Ones".
- You will receive the annual NCCA Today Newsletter series and be on the NCCA mailing list to receive important information on resources, events, special reports in the field of recovery from addictions, also information on the NCCA Annual National Symposium.
- You will be linked to information on coming conferences and workshops, nation wide, for persons in recovery.
- You will have access to NCCA's nationally recognized Blue Book Series, which contain outstanding reports/findings/major addresses by national experts on a wide range of topics relating to addictions and recovery.
- NCCA will help keep you in touch with other caregivers and persons in recovery nation wide who, through NCCA, are willing to share their insights and powerful messages of their own spirituality, which is so important to recovery!
